

Corporate Stance: Water for Life
Chardon Province

Water is a basic right for life as well as a social and cultural good.

As Sisters of Notre Dame, we reverence water as a sacred gift.

We work to protect the waters entrusted to us and we act to ensure this right for all, especially the poor in areas where our Sisters serve.

To attain this goal, we employ and teach principles of sustainability at every level of water use.